COBB TENDERS RESIGNATION

Secretary of Dothan Chamber of Commerce Has Not Completed His Plans for the Future.

Owing to the financial depression that has been prevalent since the beginning of the European war, and the low price of cotton, the South's chiefest crop, but from which aduerses the South is steadily recovering, Secretary N. T. Cobb of the Dothan Chamber of Commerce, has tendered his resignation.

Mr. Cobb was elected Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce less than a year ago, and has done more towards putting Dothan on the map, agitating better freight rates, and advertising this section generally than any man who has held the position. Some headway has also been made in aiding the farmers to organize, and better their interests.

The Chamber of Commerce, through their secretary, inaugurated a number of noteworthy projects, to which the European war and cheap cotton struck a fatal blow, at least at this time.

The chamber of commerce was largely instrumental in procuring the 1915 convention of the Alabama Sunday School Association for Dothan, which meets in this city in April, and also fostered a freight rebate bureau, which is now saving dollars and cents for the larger business concerns of this town.

Tackled Freight Rates.

Secretary Cobb tackled the freight rate proposition, and was making a spirited fight for more equitable rates to this point. The railroads have discriminated against Dothan in the freight rate matter, and for years citizens endured this unfairness, until public opinion became so aroused as to demand a change.

Movements Uncertain.

Mr. Cobb is uncertain as to his movements in the immediate future but as the young Cobb's are in the Dothan schools, it is probable that the family may remain here for a while at least.

Before coming here Mr. Cobb for eight years was editor of the Freeport, Illinois, Daily Journal and earlier was associated with Josephus Daniels, now secretary of the Navy, as industrial writer on a newspaper in Raleigh, N. C. He is a member of the Press Club of Chicago, and a versatile writer, knowing news at first sight, and best of all, knows how to handle it in a most appealing style.

His Resignation.

Dothan, Ala., Dec. 29, 1914. Mr. John Sanders, President, Chamber of Commerce of Dothan, Dothan, Ala.

Mr. Dear Sir:

In accordance with the proposition made by me to the directors of the Chamber of Commerce of Dothan, on December 9, 1914, under the conditions named (which were accepted by the board), I hereby tender my resignation as secretary of your organization.

My reason for taking this action is the general business paralysis of the entire cotton producing South, and of this section in particular, which seems to render it impossible to finance the organization for another year.

Although my contract with you ratified by the board of directors at the meeting of March 9, 1914, does not expire until March 1, 1915, realizing the conditions existing in Dothan today, I desire to contribute my part to the common weal by not claiming the salary as agreed upon for the months of January and February.

My stay in Dothan has been enlightening, and it is my sincere

D. G. CARMICHAEL BACK TO JAIL; DAVID IS OUT

Lawyers Reach Agreement Which Remands Dan G. Carmichael to Jail and Allows David $2,000 Bail.

Dan G. Carmichael was remanded to jail without bail, and David Carmichael, the son, was allowed bond in the sum of $2,000, according to an agreement reached by lawyers representing both sides today. The agreement was confirmed by the court.

According to one of the lawyers, an understanding was reached that the defense will not institute habeas corpus proceeding to free Dan G. Carmichael from jail, while the State will not take out a new warrant for David Carmichael to place him back in the county bustle. In other words, the agreement means Dan G. Carmichael will stay in jail, pending the action of the grand jury, and that David will be allowed freedom under bond.

The rehearing was to have been held before Justice W. J. Baxley today, who called to his assistance Justice of the Peace H. G. Purcell, of Columbia. The unusual spectacle of two justices of the peace presiding jointly, was presented. The defendants were brought into the court room, but the agreement of the lawyers kept testimony from being taken. Both justices approved the agreement reached by the lawyers.

The defendants were arraigned before County Judge A. C. Crawford a few weeks ago, and after hearing the testimony, the judge freed David outright, but the elder Carmichael was allowed bail in the sum of $10,000, which action the State counteracted by having new warrants issued for both defendants, who were remanded to jail, pending a hearing in the new proceedings. The warrants were issued in Justice Baxley's court, before whom the men were arraigned this morning about 11:30 o'clock.

The defendants are charged with the murder of Police Officer Hugh Harry Doshazo Monday night, December 7, in a grocery store in Dixie.

RESIDENCE BURNED.

Mrs. J. R. Crawford.

hope that the work inaugurated particularly that part which has sought to bring more just freight rates, will be continued.

Houston county is blessed with fertile lands, abundant rainfall, a pleasant climate; and, if the Dothan business men will devise some plan to teach the farmers how to raise other crops than cotton, and when such crops are produced, how to pack them for market, and to provide a market, Dothan will take care of itself.

Wishing you and every citizen of Dothan the abundant success which you so richly deserve, I am,

Respectfully yours,
N. T. COBB

FOY & WILLIAMS OPENS TUESDAY

S. O. Williams Says His Confidence in the Future of Dothan and This Section is Unshaken.

Foy & Williams, a partnership firm, has succeeded Foy-Williams Company, a corporation, and the doors of the store, intersection of Foster and Main streets, will be open to the trade Tuesday morning.

The reopening of the store will be received as good news by the public, as the old firm had built up a large trade, among all classes of people.

Mr. S. O. Williams declined to be interviewed, but admitted other things, that his confidence in Dothan is unshaken, and that this city and section has a bright future.

Personally Mr. Williams has a large following of friends, especially among the women, who have confidence in his business dealings with the trade. The Foy & Williams concern will be one of the largest stores in Dothan, dealing in Women's apparel.

BILLS UP FINAL PACE

Montgomery, Jan. 16.—Revised Fuller and Carmichael's prohibition bills will be the final passage in the Alabama legislature today. Favorable on the exchanged measure yesterday made to the House by their respective committees, and the passed second reading in both branches of the legislature.

As the bills introduced in the two branches of the legislature are identical, and have been adopted by Senators and Representatives, the prohibition bills anticipate no serious delay in bringing their five-day program to consummation.

The overwhelming success which they displayed in the House and Senate skirmishes that were previously developed makes certain that their immediate legislative plans are subject to adoption only by themselves. The 1915 model steam roller, for Representative Chamberlain, presumed such keen admiration, being re-rolled and improved and there is no evidence that has suffered any impairment in preliminary tests.

Supplementary measures, designed to reinforce the chief prohibition bills, are in the hands of the temperance committee of the two bodies. One of the bills, introduced in the Senate yesterday by Senator Morris, seeks the regulation of the import of liquor, the frequency with which shipments may be received, the amount, storage of liquors, and other features, intended to strengthen the measures introduced by Representatives Merritt and Senator Davis.

A DOUGHBOY POSES FOR THE MOVIES

Vinson Walsh McLean with Grace Darling.

Vinson Walsh McLean, "Billion Dollar Baby" son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward B. McLean, of Washington and Newport, has become a "movie" actor. Not exactly a member of a photoplay company, you understand, but, like all prominent persons of this day, he has posed for the moving pictures.

At the McLean home in Washington Vinson was visited by Grace Darling, the Hearst-Selig reporter, and while Miss Darling engaged in an extended interview with this very serious young man of four years, the movie camera checked off a record of it in pictures.

Vinson evinced great interest in the camera and the camera man was obliged to explain the technical workings of the machine. Vinson seemed to think that he would like to have one for a play toy, but finally came to the conclusion that he would wait until he was a little older although a trifle like the cost of such an expensive instrument would not interfere for many thousands of dollars. True, he spent to buy the "Billion Dollar Baby" toy.

Despite the fact that Vinson has many wonderful playthings, he prefers his live pets, such as his dogs, and his donkeys. The moving picture photographer was thinking referred to the donkeys and goats. Vinson frowned.

"Please don't call my donkeys goats," he said. "They aren't goats."

Vinson has posed for his portrait for some of the most famous painters of the present day. In 1912 Alvin Williams, president of the Royal Society of Miniature Painters of England, came all the way from London to paint Vinson's portrait. Vinson, however, prefers posing for moving pictures.

"I can play around and have so much more fun," he explained.

After Vinson had brought his donkeys to be photographed, he brought forth several of his dolls for Miss Darling among them a Foxy Grandpa Doll. I didn't know the doll had suffered a storm career for its head was partly detached, being connected with the body by only a string.

That's a funny toy isn't it?" said Vinson, as the camera clicked and Miss Darling photographed the doll. She agreed that it was and tried to lead Vinson to the doll.

What are these pictures for?" he asked.

"They will be shown in all public in the Hearst-Selig News Pictures," explained Miss Darling.

But why should the public be interested?" asked Vinson. And neither the camera man or Miss Darling were able to explain.

It had been snowing in Washington and Vinson created snowballs and made snowballs tossing them back and forth with the gunny employed by the McLean family to watch over the little fellow and when Vinson was done.

Vinson is to Miss Darling what the Pucky is to all.

But the Foxy Grandpa Doll was a few months old.

With the appearance of Miss Darling in the Hearst-Selig News Pictures, it is a motion picture reporter, there has come into being a new doll, the Foxy Grandpa Doll.

With the Foxy Grandpa Doll, the doll will be a million-dollar baby, as the camera clicked and Miss Darling photographed it. Vinson, with a smile, said, "The three rock stars, the Lumière, the Miss Lumière, and the suns whose interviews he will interpret in motion pictures

Lesson Text.

14. And there came an angel of the Lord, and sat under an oak which was in Ophrah, that pertained unto Joash the Abiezrite and his son Gideon threshed wheat by the winepress, to hide it from the Midianites.

12. And the Angel of the Lord appeared unto him, and said unto him, The Lord is with thee, thou mighty man of valour.

13. And Gideon said unto him, Oh my Lord, if the Lord be with us, why then is all this befallen us? and where be all his miracles which our fathers told us of, saying, Did not the Lord bring us up from Egypt? but now the Lord hath forsaken us, and delivered us into the hands of the Midianites.

14. And the Lord looked upon him, and said, Go in this thy might, and thou shalt save Israel from the hand of the Midianites: who have not I sent thee?

15. And he said unto him, O my Lord, wherewith shall I save Israel? behold, my family is poor in Manasseh, and I am the least in my father's house.

16. And the Angel said unto him, Surely I will be with thee, and thou shalt not be against me, and I will save thee.

17. Then all the Midianites and the Amalekites and the children of the east were gathered together, and went over, and pitched in the valley of Jezreel.

34. But the spirit of the Lord came upon Gideon, and he blew

a trumpet, and Abiezzer was gathered after him.

35. And he sent messengers throughout all Manasseh, which so was gathered after him, and he sent messengers unto Asher and unto Zebulun and unto Naphtali, and they came up to him.

36. And Gideon said unto them, If thou wilt save Israel by thy hand, as thou hast said,

37. Behold, I will put a of wool in the floor, and if the dew be on the fleece only, and be dry upon all the earth beside it, then shall I know that that will save Israel by mine hand as thou hast said.

38. And it was so, for he rose up early on the morrow, and thrust the fleece together, and wringed the dew out of the fleece,

a bowl full of water.

39. And Gideon said unto God,

Old People Everywhere Say

Peruna is good for Coughs, Colds, Catarrhal Diseases and after effects of the Grip.

When I first knew of Peruna the druggists here did not keep it. Now they all keep it.

"I have lived in this place eighty-four years. I am a farmer. Was born where I live. I have three living children. Should you publish this in the papers it will reach many of my old friends. You can use my picture as you think proper." Mr. O. W. Roberts, R. F. D. 1, Box 26, Pickens, Miss.

Eighty Years Old.

"I had a severe attack of grip. I suffered terribly while it lasted. After my attack I went for Peruna. My wife said I must have a doctor, but I insisted upon taking the Peruna, and made a quick and perfect recovery."

Mr. J. R. Prince, R. R. 1, Tuckaloo, N. Y.

Eighty-one Years Old.

"I had nervous prostration. One doctor would say I had catarrh of stomach and bowels, another nervousness, and another enlargement of liver. Nothing seemed to do me much good. I commenced taking Peruna, which built me right up." Mrs. Martha Avery, 25 Graham St., Leominster, Mass.

Seventy-eight Years Old.

"I had a severe attack of grip. I suffered terribly while it lasted. After my attack I went for Peruna. My wife said I must have a doctor, but I insisted upon taking the Peruna, and made a quick and perfect recovery."

Mr. F. M. Jordan, Bellingham, Louisiana.

These who object to liquid medicines can now obtain Peruna Tablets.

About fifteen or twenty years ago I was suffering with pains in my back. I could scarcely get about. I got some Peruna and was relieved of the pains ever since.

"I have used Peruna occasionally since and recommended it to others."

SECRETARY COBB TO LEAVE

Has Tendered His Resignation as Secretary of Chamber of Commerce.

It is with feelings of genuine regret The Eagle notes the resignation of Mr. N. T. Cobb, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce which will mean the departure from Dothan of this gentleman and his estimable family.

Mr. Cobb took active charge of the Chamber of Commerce last March, coming to Dothan from Freeport, Ill., where he had conducted a daily newspaper for six years. In his capacity as secretary of the local commercial organization Mr. Cobb has been tireless in his efforts to further the commercial and industrial interests of Dothan and Houston county.

In his publicity campaign launched shortly after taking up the work of secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, it may be said that he has literally put Dothan and Houston county on the map in a commercial and agricultural sense. He also has done valuable work in agitating the matter of lower freight rates for Dothan, and says served in the army, and who, are words, we no longer with which to pay a large amount if we are attacked. We are also short of officers and the instruction of the organized militia suffers woefully the lack of officers available for service.

"Yet we are doing nothing towards increasing our supply of officers although we have the military academy in the way ready to give instruction to a number of officers that we need."

Ready, Ky.—"I was not able to do much for nearly six months," writes Mrs. James B. Hender, of this place, "and then down in for three months.

I cannot tell you how I suffered with my hand, and with nervousness and insomnia.

My family doctor told my husband he could not do me any good, and he left me up. We tried another doctor, but he did not help me.

At last, my mother advised me to take Doctor George's tonic. I thought him so bad for I was nearly dead and nothing seemed to do me any good. But Doctor George's tonic, and now I am able to do all of my work and my own housework.
